

Carrie Pearson holds a BA in early childhood education from the University of Michigan and taught at the University's preschool. She is now a full-time children's book author. She is a frequent presenter at schools, libraries, bookstores, and conferences for teachers and writers. She is a Regional Advisor for the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators (SCBWI) Michigan chapter and a member of the Michigan Reading Association and the Upper Peninsula Publishers and Authors Association. Carrie was awarded the Gwen Frostic Award for literacy development given by the Michigan Reading Association.

She is the author of three nature-themed picture books, A WARM WINTER TAIL (gold Gelett Burgess Award), A COOL SUMMER TAIL, and STRETCH TO THE SUN: FROM A TINY SPROUT TO THE TALLEST TREE ON EARTH (silver Eureka! Award for Nonfiction CA Reading Association). A picture book biography about medical trailblazer, Dr. Virginia Apgar, launches in 2022, and a nonfiction picture book about how real princesses are changing the world will launch fall 2022. Carrie would love to connect with you through her website www.carriepearsonbooks.com, on Twitter @carrieapearson, Pinterest carrieapearson, and/or Instagram carrieapearson.author.